PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Dear Friends:

It was nearly 5 years ago that I "set foot" on the G&S stage as Edith in our 2003 production of The Pirates of Penzance. I am quoting, of course, from one of the lines Edith spoke when she and her sisters first come into the scene, "Climbing over Rocky Mountain," and carrying on in conversation about Mermaids, "who can't be said strictly to set foot anywhere. Tails they may, but feet they cannot." The girls have wandered ahead of their father, the Major-General, and have come upon the seashore. This is perhaps unusual for girls from that era to meander beyond the watchful eye of their guardian, yet playful, mischievous Edith is excited about this moment of freedom: "We are quite alone, and the sea is as smooth as glass. Suppose we take off our shoes, and stockings and paddle?" To which her sisters reply wholeheartedly, "Yes, yes! The very thing!"

This spirit of mischief and playfulness is entirely Gilbert & Sullivan-esque, and it is largely these particular themes that play throughout their works, whether it be in words or music. With that, we are always guaranteed that no matter how harrowing a situation may be, the show leaves us with a joyful finale.

Speaking of which, we invite you to join us on May 12 for bit of mischief and playfulness at the Perfectly Piratical Party, where we will view short clips from Pirates-influenced movies, sing-along to some favorite Pirates tunes, and enjoy the company of some of our Pirates cast members, all at the lovely home of Benny and Nanci Jay. And don't forget to purchase your tickets for The Pirates of Penzance which are now available online at www.gilbertsullivan.org. Here's to another joyful summer!

Yours truly,
June Julian
President

MONEY

I am the very model of a Modern Major-General,
I understand equations, both the simple and quadratical,
About binomial theorem I'm teeming with a lot of news --

This summer's production of The Pirates of Penzance needs YOU!

Your generous donations allow our production equations to come out on top. Please contribute now,
So this summer's show can be our best yet!

News of Friends and Members

Alpha Music Center has sold the Society our vocal scores for many years. Now Alpha has moved north to 1739 West Anderson Lane, in the same building as Encore CD'S and Videos.

Same phone: (512) 477-5009

Frank Dely continues to have some recurring health problems. He underwent successful surgery and was recovering well, but some after-effects kept him in the hospital longer than expected. Frank is a true trouper, and promises "I won't let anything keep me from doing what I love!" Keep him in your thoughts and we'll all be enjoying his Major-General in June.

Glory Marie Posch has been hired to direct CyFair College Lyric Opera's 2008 fall production -- "Nothing But Opera." This includes auditions, set, music, staging-choreographing, etc. -- the works! She is very excited about this opportunity. She has directed children's plays, but never work at the college level.

Ralph MacPhail, Jr. reports a wonderfully enthusiastic reception to The Mikado he directed in Richmond, VA for the Virginia Commonwealth Opera Theatre. He also reports that Alice is healing slowly and was able to attend the performances on April 26 and 27. The news came in too late for our last newsletter that Alice had suffered a miserable and unusual accident. Early in April she and Rafe were leaving a church parking area when a car drove out wildly, went up on the sidewalk knocking down Alice and ended up crashed into the air conditioning unit. Considering the unpleasant possibilities, Alice was lucky to escape with only three broken ribs and some bruises. However, there is nothing to do about broken ribs except suffer as they slowly heal, so this has been a very unpleasant experience.

Our members are involved in a variety of outside activities. Eva Laskaris and Kristin Burritt perform often with Conspirare and as Voce Divina, most recently singing for a posh wedding at Laguna Gloria. Both plan to be involved in the formation of the new Hill Country Christian Conservatory of Music in Northwest Austin, opening in the fall of 2008.

Arthur diBianca plays the clarinet in the Austin Philharmonic Orchestra. On April 30 he performed in their free concert at the School for the Blind. Their concerts are always free of charge, and are usually open to all. Art says the Austin Philharmonic Orchestra welcomes volunteer instrumentalists. For more information, see their website:

MEMBER OF THE MONTH

All dues-paying members are eligible to be our "Member of the Month." The "Member" (who is randomly selected) is entitled to receive a CD of our 2005 The Mikado, or 2006 HMS Pinafore. The Member of the Month for this month is:

Pat & Paul Ehrler

Congratulations! Please call our office (472-4772) to let us know where we should send your CD.

THE CARL ROSA TOURING OPERA COMPANY

The Mikado

Report by Reba Gillman

As expected the British touring company production of The Mikado was delightful, and very well attended. The enthusiastic presence of so many people of all ages confirms our belief that the Gilbert and Sullivan operas remain alive and well, and enduringly popular long after a hundred years. The implication for our own productions is that we need to find ways to convince the public that we're doing a great job, and that our shows should not be missed.

Personally, I was amazed at the rapid pace taken for many of the choruses, and noted that clever up-to-date words were inserted in most of the famous "I've got a little list" song. Traditionally a few changes have always been made, but this version was almost totally present-reality oriented, and incidentally very funny. A good laugh was the response to the statement (in the second act) that Nanki Pooh had gone abroad to Esther's Follies.

It was a jolly good show, but several of us local G&Sers staunchly proclaimed that many of our singing actors were just as good, if not better. It was, indeed, a very affirming experience as we recognized the excellence of our own productions.

Russell Gregory, David Fontenot, Jeffrey Jones-Ragona, Eva Laskaris, Holton Johnson perform at Frederic's Birthday Musicale, February 29, 2008.
