Summer 2009 Grand Production

Plan now to attend the Summer 2009 Grand Production of Iolanthe, or the Peer and the Peri - considered by many to combine Sullivan's finest opera compositions with another of Gilbert's nutty plots and his witty and waggish dialogue. A delightful comedy for all ages, Iolanthe presents a topsy turvy love story involving persistent fairies and reticent members of the House of Lords - a political fairy tale that only Gilbert & Sullivan could conceive.

June 11th-21st
Thursday - Sunday

Artistic Director: Ralph MacPhail, Jr.
Music Director: Jeffrey Jones-Ragona

Travis High School Performing Arts Center | Tickets $5-$25

Formed in 1976, The Gilbert and Sullivan Society of Austin was founded with the purpose of educating the public and preserving the works of Gilbert and Sullivan. GSSA is funded and supported in part by the City of Austin through the Cultural Arts Division and by a grant from the Texas Commission on the Arts and an award from the National Endowment for the Arts which believes that a great nation deserves great art.
